Carlyle Harris Wants the Public to Know His Courage.

His Pride Prevents Him From Showing His Fear of Death.

A CAREFUL WATCH BRING KEPT TO PREVENT SELF-DESTRUCTION.

Lawyer Howe Says an Appeal to the Supreme Court Would Only Prolong the Agony—Harris' Mother With Him at Sing Sing—A Turpentine Operator Killed by an Employee—Charges Against a Georgia Sheriff—A New Mexico Lynching Bee.

Snow Sings, N. Y., May 5.—"Tell the reporters," said Carlyle Harris to one of his death watchers yesterday, "to make it public that I have not broken down and that I shall go to the death chair with as much courage as I had on the day when I went and surrendered myself to the District Attorney."

"But," said his brother, Allan, who heard his words, "it is not too late to hope, Carlyle."

"Oh, what's the use?" answered the condemned man, impatiently. "They will hurry me off as fast as they can, even though I could bring a witness who saw poor Helen take the fatal dose of morphine on that awful night. They are bound to hurry me off, anyway. It's all over."

Harris has acted the part of a martyr so long that he now really seems to believe that he is a martyr. It makes no difference to him that he has had greater opportunity to prove his innocence than any other accused murderer ever brought to trial in this state. He started to play his part and he has played it so long and so cleverly that the character he assumed has become his nature. There is bravado in his manner; he is what might be called a "nervy man." He has shown his nerve through the year's ordeal while his life has been in the balance scale of justice. He has read in the newspapers the comments on his nerve, and he has grown to be proud of it, and now it is all that he has left to be proud of. When he says that he will go bravely to the chair and to death, perhaps painless but none the less ignominious and awful, those who know him best believe that he will keep his word.

Harris' mother is here now with his brothers. She was telegraphed for at Harris' home, and immediately after the word was received that there was no longer hope, and she at once left Northfield, Mass., the farm on which she was born, to come to Sing Sing. There is talk of the possibility of Harris committing suicide. Those who know him believe that he would not do so if he could. But it is little chance of suicide that he can get.

Since Roehl and Pallister escaped from the death corridor, Sing Sing keepers are keeping their eyes wide open. His visitors can pass nothing to him, because of that close wire screen on the iron bars, which makes it impossible for even their fingers tips to touch. Should he bite the arteries of his wrist the watchers would immediately summon Dr. Irvine of the prison, who is in constant attendance.

It has been suggested by witscapes that somebody might write him a letter on a sheet of paper that had been previously soaked in prussic acid or some other deadly poison and then ironed out so as to smooth the paper, and Harris might chew the paper. Dr. Irvine examines all the letters after Chaplain Wells has opened them, and believes that the scheme could not be worked.

A MOTHER'S CRIME.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Mrs. Fanny Kern of 101 West Sixty-eighth street yesterday gave poison to her two young children, Edwin, 12 years old, and Florence, 6 than shot them and ran out of the house. All were taken to Roosevelt Hospital.

DEADLY ECONOMY.

Life Saving Stations Closed and Seamen Drowned in Consequence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5.—General Superintendent Kimball of the Life Saving Service, having had his attention called to the report in a morning paper of a shipwreck with loss of life near Newburyport, Mass., while the statement attributed to Capt. C. H. Smith, the captain of the steamer, had been on duty, the service station (which had been saved) may be true, still the fact does not by any means prove that the stations should be kept open during the inactive season; that is, on the Atlantic coast from May 1 to Sept. 1 of each year.

Prior to 1870 the law authorized the stations to be kept open only from Dec. 1 to March 1 following. The same law, however, in 1877, resulted in a law authorizing the stations to be kept in commission each year. The present arrangement, however, it will be noted, covers the autumnal and winter equinoctial storms as well as the temperate seasons, and during the blander summer months, when the stations are closed, storms are far less frequent and fewer, and loss of life rarely occurs.

The latter claims that the Steamer made an important discovery in America, and that committed the woman swore out a warrant against the arrest of the sheriff, and that the woman swore out the warrant in order to extort money from the sheriff.

JOINED ANOTHER ARMY.

SPokane, Wash., May 6.—David W. Kirk, formerly a Deputy United States Marshal in the State of Arkansas, shot and killed Capt. Ida Bennett of the Salvation Army and then blew out his own brains. He had been desperately in love with her for months and she returned it in the hope of bringing about his release from the service. She had entreated him from marrying a man who was not a member, and she could not induce him to do so. She refused to leave the army for his sake. In the end she became ill for a night and after a short talk with the woman he loved put two bullets through her heart and then shot himself. His own gun had failed and lay dead on the floor beside her. Capt. Bennett was a tall, handsome woman, and Kirk was a widower with several children.

LYNCHED THREE.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 8.—The bodies of Antonio Martinez and Jose Barcelos, murderers of Mrs. Manuela Nueviles, and Victoriano Aragon, the confessed murderer of his cousin, Mrs. Beatriz Aragon, were found hanging to a cottonwood tree near this city yesterday. The prisoners had been taken to Los Lunas, N. M., and yesterday the frequency of murders in this locality recently prompted the citizens to lynch these prisoners in order to prevent to put a check on homicides.

SHOT AN EMPLOYEE.

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 6.—J. N. Blitch, a prominent turpentine operator of Coffee County, was brutally murdered at his place of residence late last night by a negro named Jimmie. The negro had been paid before it was done and Blitch refused to pay him until Saturday night, the regular pay day. A quarrel followed. The negro shot Blitch twice with a Winchester rifle. The murderer escaped. The people threaten to Lynch the negro.

LYNCHED A BRUTE.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 6.—Ten days after the happening of the Denmark tragedy comes the news of another lynching in this state. Last Thursday an ex-convict named Sam Galliard entered the house of a white farmer named Amos Weeks, who lives in Williamsburg County, near Kingstree. In the absence of the husband assaulted Mrs. Weeks. As soon as the news flashed across the country the country people organized themselves and went to the scene of the galliard, whom they captured yesterday afternoon. To-day Galliard was found hanging to a limb, filled with bullet holes. Galliard was a scoundrel, and had been in the Penitentiary twice.

PLANNED A BANK ROBBERY.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 6.—The Starr gang of Indian Territory outlaws planned a raid on the Caney Valley Bank at Caney, Kan., yesterday, but they were sent on their way and when they went sent a wire to the town they found the bank and stores closed and guarded and they made no attack. The same band raided the Caney Valley bank three months ago, and it is probable that this is the same band of desperados that held up the train and robbed the passengers at Fryer Creek last Tuesday night.

A BRAKEMAN'S VENGEANCE.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 6.—George Williams, a brakeman on the East Virginia & Pittsburgh Railroad, was arrested last night charged with wrecking a train some days ago, several persons being killed and injured. His wife, with whom he had quarreled, was on the train, and had made threats that he would wreck it to get even with her. She was slightly injured in the disaster.

KNOCKED OFF FIVE YEARS.

CHESTER, Ill., May 6.—Gov. Argel has just completed the sentence of Paul Johnson, a convict in Chester. Paul was given five years to twenty years, and Pat was very thankful, for "it takes a long time to wait while such a term is expiring," as Pat says. He was sent from Williamson County in 1882 and was entrusted with one of the gates for several years.

GEOGRAPHY CONVICTS DESPERATE.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 6.—No more trials will be held in the Con-City (Gas) Company's court, as all of the convicts have surrendered. In their attempt to escape yesterday one guard was killed and five convicts wounded. The convicts had improvised guns out of gas pipe, which were loaded with stones and sticks, and had a loaded pistol and lock or trigger. All of these guns have been found, and at present all is quiet at the camp.

REFUSED TO ANSWER.

ROME, May 6.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday Sig. Brin, Minister of Foreign Affairs, refused to reply to a question asked by Sig. Barzilai in relation to the brutal repression by the Austrian authorities of the festivities at Trieste in honor of the silver wedding of King Humbert.

Sig. Barzilai retorted: "Your refusal to reply is infamous in view of the shameful conduct committed against the dignity of Italy."

Cheers and counter cheers greeted this utterance.

Sig. Giuffrida yelled: "Italy was never so insulted."

The Chamber was for some time in an uproar, but Sig. Brin persisted in refusing to answer.

ROBERT LINCOLN COMING HOME.

LONDON, May 6.—Robert T. Lincoln, the American Minister, traveled on the "Eagle" train to Southampton to-day, accompanied by all the members of the American Legation. Gen. Wm. Fahey and dozens of American tourists, who had made the long journey with him, as well as he sailed home on the American Line steamship New York. The new American Consul-General, Patrick A. Collins, began his duties to-day.

PAULINE WAS CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 6.—Pauline Kurtz, a female burglar, was discovered in the act of entering Henry Priestley's residence in Kensington, and when an officer of the police called to arrest her, she overtook her. There are many old cases in which a woman is known to be the operator and it is believed that Pauline committed all of them.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 6.—Walker Hargraves, the man who was implicated in the bloody battle at Arlington, about seven miles from Fort Worth, was killed in a gun fight with a white man, men were killed, and he once left Northfield, Mass., the farm on which she was born, to come to Sing Sing.

There is talk of the possibility of Harris committing suicide. Those who know him believe that he would not do so if he could. But it is little chance of suicide that he can get.

JUNE 25 HER DEATH-DAY.

WARRENSSO, Mo., May 6.—Gus Banks, a negro, trial for the killing of El Palmer in Sedalia a year ago, was yesterday convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged on the 22d of June. An appeal will be taken.

A BOY CONVICTED OF MURDER.

CARROLLTON, Ill., May 6.—After being out eight hours to the turn of the wheel of the State vs. Mildred McBride was ordered a verdict of murder in the first degree. On Oct. 2, 1892, McBride killed his sweetheart, Della Owens, because she left him to play with another boy. McBride is not over 18 years of age.

RELIEVED TO BE INSANE.

ROCKFORD, Ill., May 6.—The plea of guilty filed by Mr. Burke, the matricide, was set aside by Judge Shaw yesterday, the court believing Burke to be insane. Counsel have been appointed to defend him. An inquiry into his mental condition will be made.

A MOTHER'S CRIME.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Mrs. Fanny Kern of 101 West Sixty-eighth street yesterday gave poison to her two young children, Edwin, 12 years old, and Florence, 6 than shot them and ran out of the house. All were taken to Roosevelt Hospital.

AGIN THE GOVERNMENT.

Chancy Depew Talks Humorously on Cleveland's Financial Policy.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Chancy Depew found time yesterday to pay his respects to the President and tell him what his thoughts of the Administration's financial policy. He said:

"Mr. Cleveland appears to me like a baby with a locomotive. He does not know what to do. He acts like a pedagogue, and appears to be endeavoring to educate the country. His party, who are silver men, up to the gold standard, while in the meantime the financial standing of the country is going to wreck. Thousands of men have already become bankrupt because Mr. Cleveland had not had financial horse sense enough to avert the crisis. He has not in his Cabinet a man who has ever been a good financier, a man who has ever handled any large amounts of money and shaped a financial policy for the Government.

"Mr. Carlisle is an able, clever man, but who ever heard of him as a sound financier and a man capable of handling hundreds of millions of dollars as men did who were in the Government Administrations from time to time?

"Secretary Gresham and Hovey Smith are good lawyers, but they are not versed in financial matters where many millions of dollars are involved. When specie payments were about to be suspended, the leading bankers of the country were called in and told that the Government intended that the specie payments should be suspended from Saturday night until Monday morning. This caused a great commotion and excitement, but the Government did not do anything to meet the emergency.

"The Board of Directors and the National Committee have declared that they will not be closed on Sunday, and will remain open to the public on Monday morning. This is a sound financial policy, and it will be safe to trust to the Board of Directors to meet the emergency.

AN IMPORTED TURTLE DEAD.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., May 6.—Of the twenty Turks who passed through here en route for the World's Fair, one was taken seriously ill. Word has received that he died at Hornellsville, and the cause of his death is said to be typhoid fever.

THE LARGEST BARBETTE.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., May 6.—The largest and most powerful barbette so far made for the new navy has just been completed at the Bethlehem ordnance works. It is the art barbette for the battleship Maine, and was shipped to the New York Navy Yard, where the Maine is in process of construction.

The barbette is composed of 12-inch cast iron plates, six inches thick, and has an outside diameter of 2 feet 4 inches. The barbette is an innovation on the manufacture of armor. A flat plane intersects the cylinder and cuts one-sixth of the body of the circle.

PEARY'S ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 6.—Lieut. Robert E. Peary left to-day for St. Johns, Nova Scotia, to complete his arrangements for the vessel to take the exploring party to Melville Bay. The route will be the same as that previously followed, by the way of Newfoundland, Baffin's Bay and Whale Island.

DISTRESSED HER FRIEND.

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 6.—J. N. Blitch, a prominent turpentine operator of Coffee County, was brutally murdered at his place of residence late last night by a negro named Jimmie. The negro had been paid before it was done and Blitch refused to pay him until Saturday night, the regular pay day. A quarrel followed. The negro shot Blitch twice with a Winchester rifle. The

The Reichstag Refuses to Pass the Army Bill and Is Dissolved.

END OF THE LONG FIGHT OVER THE MEASURE.

Caprivi Reads the Emperor's Mandate of Dissolution and the Social Democrats Yell Till They Are Hoarse—The City of London's Betrothal Present to the Duke of York—A Question at Rome Unanswered.

HERZEL, May 6.—The Government bill providing for increasing the army was rejected to-day in the Reichstag by a vote of 216 against the bill to 161 in favor of the bill. The rescript of the Kaiser dissolving the Reichstag was immediately pronounced and the Reichstag is now dissolved. The Administration Building is the only exception. On this structure only the American flag is shown. About 100 poles, each unfurled a flag or banner. The colors of all nations are shown with a bewildering profusion and add greatly to the general appearance of the grounds and buildings. The Administration Building is the only exception. On this structure only the American flag is shown. About 100 poles, each occupying a prominent place, adorns it from top to bottom.

The Social Democratic members of the Reichstag displayed the wildest enthusiasm over the result. They hurried repeatedly, following cheer with cheer. Great confusion and uproar prevailed in the house and the public excitement is at the highest pitch in Berlin.

HOTSON ACQUITTED.

The Midwife Relieved of Responsibility for Laura Fitts' Death.

VERDICT REACHED BY THE JURY AFTER TWO HOURS' DELIBERATION.

When the Announcement of the Acquittal
Was Made the Midwife Retreated Much Pleasure and Shock Hands With Her Attorneys Warmly—What Mr. Zachritis Has to Say:

After dragging its weary way along for over two years, a conclusion was reached in the Hotson case in the Criminal Court this morning, when the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and Louise Hotson, the midwife, was formally acquitted of the charge of manslaughter in the second degree, preferred against her on account of her alleged connection with the death of Laura Fitts, which occurred Feb. 2, 1891. The case was submitted to the jury at 9 o'clock last night, and it took them just two hours to reach a decision. Owing to the fact that Judge Green had gone home, their verdict was not formally announced until this morning, the jury being locked up all night. The result, however, was well known about the Four Courts last evening, and has been confidently predicted for days.

But few persons were in the Criminal Court when the Judge took his seat a little before 9 o'clock. Mrs. Hotson was not present, but was represented by Marshall F. McDonald, her attorney, who with a smile of satisfaction on his face, pleasantly greeted the jury as they filed in with the verdict which he so confidently expected. Mrs. Hotson came into Court a few moments after the verdict had been announced. She made no outward demonstration of pleasure, but her face at once took on a more pleased expression than it has worn for months. When the verdict of not guilty was read she quietly turned and shook hands with her attorneys, with whom she remained in conversation for a few moments and then left the building.

THE MIDWIFE PLEASED.
"I don't know that I can add anything to the verdict," she said to a reporter who accosted her as she was leaving the room. "Of course, my mind is infinitely relieved, but I have never for a moment questioned the fact that my innocence would be proved. This awful charge hanging over my head has worried me more than I can say; thank God it is over. The Four Courts will see me no more if I can help it."

The acquittal of Mrs. Hotson also quashes the charge against Geo. W. Dashman, who was indicted jointly with her. The case against him will probably fall through as the only hope of securing a conviction rested upon the possibility of a finding against the female defendant. The trial differed in no material particular from the first hearing of the case which resulted in a hung jury. The only new feature was an estimate by the attorneys for the defense that Mrs. Hotson had paid the funeral expenses of Laura Fitts, but in this they were unsuccessful. Upon the first ballot last night the jury stood 11 to 2 in favor of conviction. Several subsequent ballots were taken with out change until the last, which resulted in a unanimous vote for acquittal.

THE ALLEGED CRIMINAL.
At the time of the death of Laura Fitts, a 19-year-old girl, lived with her parents at 208 Morgan street. On the evening of Jan. 26, 1891, she left her home, accompanied by a man afterwards identified as George W. Dashman, saying she was going to attend a party at the home of Mrs. L. E. and F. V. Brokaw called to attend her. They decided that she was suffering from the effect of an illegal operation, and decided that she should be sent to a doctor for her life. This was performed, but proved unsatisfactory for five days later she died.

Considerable difficulty was experienced in bringing the case to trial due to the first hearing which took place in March last. It had been continued no less than twelve times, and finally adjourned without trial. At one time it was thought that the prosecution would have to drop the case, owing to the absence of Mary Hoecker, an important witness, who had been unable to come forward and by voluntary subscriptions paid the expenses of her transportation, etc. Many other difficulties were encountered. These have been fully explained, and it is shown that the prosecution failed to make the fight in the second trial that they did in the first.

Hood's Cures

Even When Totally Helpless

A Great Sufferer from Rheumatism...

Unable to Move Hands or Feet.

Mr. C. M. Hyer

Hoboken, N. J.

"I am a boilermaker with W. & A. Fletcher Co. at River Iron Works, this city, and at my business I contracted rheumatism so that I became a very great sufferer, and was really an invalid; helpless, could not move hands or feet, was unable to dress or undress myself. I had to have help to turn myself in bed. I did not work for four months, and was in a hospital for a long time. I spent a great deal of money without benefit. I asked the doctors if they could cure me, and they said they could not."

One day a friend advised me to take a bottle of Hood's Saraparilla. When I had taken one bottle, I could get up, stand on my feet, and walk through the rooms. I continued to take the medicine, and steadily improved until I was perfectly well. I can prove all I say by my fellow workmen who saw me in my agony, and the firm by whom I am employed." C. M. HYER, Hoboken, N. J.

in their making.

Office of the Health Commissioner.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 21, 1893.

THE conflicting publications about the baking powders caused me to ask City Chemist Dr. Sullivan for a report upon them. He has analyzed the principal brands sold in St. Louis, and reports that the Royal is the purest and greatest in leavening strength. This has induced the use of the Royal Baking Powder in my home, and it is found to give most complete satisfaction.

JUDGE KLEIN'S RULING.

He Gives Henry Harris a Few Hours to Withdraw His Iron Hall Suit.

Judge Klein gave a very important opinion this morning in the case of contempt of court against Henry Harris of Kansas City, who is involved in the financial troubles which have been created by the Supreme Sitting of the Order of the Iron Hall. It will be remembered that some time ago when the Iron Hall sitting got into trouble a receiver was appointed. This receiver brought to the notice of the Court the fact that the Kansas City branch of the order had certain books, papers and moneys in its possession, and refused to turn them over to the receiver. The Court issued an order upon the trustees of the order to turn the books over to the receiver.

"What will you do with the case against George W. Dashman?" he asked.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

THE GLASGOW AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH PROPERTY TO BE SOLD.

Thirty-eighth Annual Convention of the German Catholic Central Verein—Pilgrim Church's New Pastor—Sacred Heart Reception—Religious Notes.

At a meeting of the members of the Glasgow Avenue Presbyterian Church, situated on Glasgow avenue, between Dayton and Dickson streets, Wednesday night, it was decided to sell the property and move further west. The congregation owning the lot at the southeast corner of Glasgow avenue and Dickson street, and the house of worship, which adjoins the alley, was intended to be a chapel to be attached to the main edifice, which was to adorn the corner. But the church was not built and the members desire to dispose of the property and the chapel. The neighborhood has changed since Glasgow Avenue Church was organized, and many members have moved away from the vicinity. This is the reason why the church body decided to move.

Glasgow Avenue church has not had a permanent pastor for some time. Rev. A. N. Thompson, now stationed at Indianapolis, was the last regular pastor. Rev. Adolfo Allen of New York, who paid a visit to this city last year, was induced to become pastor and he served for several months. But, though all regret his departure, he is not missed. The congregation had differences and Mr. Allen is now in New York. Rev. Thomas Marshall, Field Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, will preach at Glasgow Avenue Church next Sunday.

Dr. Stimson's Successor.

The members of Pilgrim Congregational Church, Twenty-ninth street and Washington avenue, met last night to receive the report of the Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, pastor of Union Congregational Church. Report was submitted as the successor to Rev. Dr. Henry D. Stimson. By a unanimous vote it was decided to call Dr. Boynton. Dr. Boynton, a graduate of the Andover Newton Theological Seminary, is the son of the committee, Messrs. A. P. Forbes, A. N. Benedict, George H. Morgan, T. P. Eddle, L. Bishop, William George and Charles Rowell, spoke in the merits of Dr. Boynton. Dr. Boynton is a native of Medford, Mass., and was born in 1857. He was educated in the public schools at Phillips Academy, Andover, and in 1882 was ordained pastor of the Congregational Church at Littleton, Mass., and also became associate pastor of North Church, Neverhill.

Thirty-Eighth Annual Convention.

The thirty-eighth annual convention of the German Catholic Central Verein will be held in this city the third week in September. It will open with a solemn high mass at St. Peter and Paul's church. The business session will be held at St. Peter and Paul's hall and will continue for three days.

On Sunday evening there will be a public meeting in the Grand Music Hall, tickets $1.50. All the proceeds of the address will be delivered and other features of a carefully prepared programme rendered.

Weather forecast until 8 o'clock Sunday evening: For Missouri—Fair preceded by showers in southern portions; northeast winds.

An area of low pressure is central in Texas. Rain has fallen in Ohio and western Indiana and Arkansas and has changed to snow in portions of Colorado. Rain is falling in Kansas and prospects favorable for more rain in that locality. There has been a marked fall in temperature from Colorado, Kansas, Missouri and Illinois. In all other sections the changes have been slight.

The Ohio has been rising at Parkersburg. At Cincinnati stage will reach 52 feet by May 7. At Evansville the river is rising. The Missouri is stationary. The Arkansas is falling. The Lower Mississippi is rising rapidly.

St. Louis forecast: Rain. Stationary temperature. Gov. PENNOYER of Oregon is distracting public attention somewhat from Ward McAllister.

Perhaps Mr. Olney is depending upon the water in the stock of the trusts to swamp them.

The Wall street storm was purely local. Scarcely a whiff was felt by the remainder of the country.

EMPEROR WILLIAM will be something less of a war lord with his army bill sat upon by the peaceful Reichstag.

It looks as if the spring rains had fallen into the cordage stock in addition to the supply furnished by the managers.

COL. DALTON will have the satisfaction of viewing the ruins of the Noonan "push" from a comfortable seat in the Custom-house.

THE German Reichstag has voted against a further development of the arts of war. The members seem to think it is time for the arts of peace to have an inning.

ATTY. GEN. OLNEY should take advantage of his opportunities now that the worst trusts are groggy and winded. It is a good time to "go in and finish them."

A ROYAL Spanish Mail steamer has just passed over the bar at Galveston, drawing 16 feet and 1 inch, and laden with Southern products. This is another Columbian triumph.

ALONG with the opposition to the German army bill there is a growing jealousy of Prussia's prominence in the Empire. It looks as if the United States will continued to be a German Fatherland. The German is happiest and most prosperous in a republic.

MOODY and Sankey are to hold revival meetings at the World's Fair. They should be placed within ear shot of the covetous citizens who are running the restaurants.

THE Mayor has begun his raid on the Democratic "push," but as long as he can save cause for it and keep the Republican "push" out, there is "no kick coming" from the people.

The rejection of the army bill by the German Reichstag indicates an agreement with Herr Richter's opinion that the sensation of hunger takes precedence over the sentiment of patriotism.

surrendered to the builders or operators of the roads.

We must have the roads sooner or later. In Massachusetts and Connecticut, where farms are abandoned and the rural population is decreasing, more than a hundred applications for franchises have been filed, and in the West, where population is growing rapidly, the demand will be even more imperative.

If these franchises are treated as were the railroad enterprises of the early '70s we may expect the West to sink still deeper in the mire of debt. If on the contrary an intelligent policy is adopted the new roads may be made instrumental in promoting the prosperity of the country and furthering the real interests of the whole community.

AUSTRALIAN BUBBLE.

The financial troubles of Australasia are not due to any dislocation of trade and production outside the island continent, but to "excessive optimism" among the Australians themselves. The development of the country has been carried beyond the present generation and the future for perhaps fifty years has been mortgaged by dreamers and speculators who have let their hopes get the better of their judgment.

This is shown not only in the enormous extension of private credit, based upon expectations of returns which cannot be realized for more than half a century, but in the reckless creation of public debts and the construction of public works far in advance of the demand. Including Tasmania and New Zealand the public debt amounts to $1,000,000,000. The population is only 4,400,000. Of course, great increases are expected, but a debt of this magnitude cannot very well be borne by a population less than 30,000,000 and it will probably be two or three decades before the President and his advisers.

Speculators' Heads Colder and Prices Firmer To-day.

NO MORE SMASHES REPORTED IN CONSEQUENCE OF THE FLUENCY.

President Cleveland's Highest Suggestion From the New York World.

With masterly tact he calls the whole world's attention to the fact that our highest achievement as a nation, that which constitutes our peculiar glory, is not to be discovered in the material wonders of the fair:

"We have built these splendid edifices, but we have also built the magnificent fabric of a popular government. We have made and have gathered together objects of use and beauty; we have also made men who rule themselves."

This is the most splendid and the most marvelous consequence of the daring venture of Columbus into unknown seas.

In these sentences quoted and in the impressive words with which the address closes the President reached by a sure flight the highest suggestions of the great occasion.

The Foreigners' Example Followed by Home Folks and Buying Liberal—Slumped Stocks Rise in Consequence—Meaning of the Delay in Calling the Monetary Conference—Congress in Extra Session Expected to Make a Declaration on Silver.

New York, May 6.—The speculative head winds cooled through the night and this morning Wall street walked up to the bullring with greater nerve and a wider perspective of things. Since the close of yesterday's conflict men have held the situation at arm's length and turned it around for a view at all sides. They turn to-day how the foreigners slid in under the smoke of yesterday's engagement and grabbed and made away with a sackful of divided-payers at Chatham street prices.

"We'll take some of this ourselves," was the feeling of brokers as they smoked light after-breakfast cigars this morning and more calmly read the record of their losses for hours yesterday.

Hence it was that the general run of active stocks, both railways and industrials, opened strong and anywhere from 1/2 to 2½ per cent higher. Cordage rose 1/2 to 2½ and then receded to 20. In the first ten minutes of business, however, American Sugar, which had opened at 81, fell to 77½ and this checked the rising tendency.

The Stock Exchange during the first hours of business presented striking contrast with the excitement and panicky feeling that prevailed yesterday. While the dealings were larger than the average they were small as compared with yesterday and the fluctuations were not as violent. After a rise of 1/2 to 1 point at the opening, the latter in Sugar preferred, a disposition to wait was manifested and a sharp reaction ensued.

At 10:15 a.m. the market was weak in tone, but business was not especially active, and the excitement did not touch the high pitch reached on Thursday and Friday.

At 10:15 a.m. the market was weak in tone, but business was not especially active, and the excitement did not touch the high pitch reached on Thursday and Friday.

The Stock Exchange during the first hours of business presented striking contrast with the excitement and panicky feeling that prevailed yesterday. While the dealings were larger than the average they were small as compared with yesterday and the fluctuations were not as violent. After a rise of 1/2 to 1 point at the opening, the latter in Sugar preferred, a disposition to wait was manifested and a sharp reaction ensued.

At 10:15 a.m. the market was weak in tone, but

 "Globe-Democrat" of May 2, 1893:

An Electric Road to Creve Coeur!

The Midland Electric Railway is to be extended to Creve Coeur Lake. Mr. Eugene Benoit, the President of the company, was in Clayton yesterday in the interest of his road, and stated positively that it was the intention of the company to make the extension of the line. The route has not yet been definitely settled upon, but it will be somewhere between the St. Charles Rock and the Olive Street roads. The latter thoroughfare will most likely be selected, as the country contiguous is most thickly settled for the greater part of the way. O. P. Baldwin and others owning property along Lackland road, about midway between the two roads, are making a strenuous effort to have the road built along that road, and have raised a bonus of $50,000 to induce the company to build on the route proposed by them, and over which they propose to give the right of way. As soon as the route is decided upon work will be begun upon the road, which will be rushed through in order to have it completed in time for the County Fair, in September. A short extension to Camp Marvin, on the St. Charles Rock road, will probably be completed in time for the big Southern Methodist camp meeting, which is annually held there ten days during the month of August.

TWILIGHT IS GONE.

The Botheration Gelding and Owners
Skip Town.

THE JOCKEY CLUB IS OUT $600 BY THEIR DISAPPEARANCE.

After Promising Secretary Dollars to Produce the Animal & Owners Vanish, Having Said That the Horse Has Been Sold—What the Clerks Said—The Bookmakers' Losses.

When the Clark Boys made their famous killing with the Botheration gelding, the bookmakers said the horse was very properly named. From the way the Clark boys have acted since Tuesday it seems that they hit upon another appropriate title when they changed the horse's name to Twilight. Like that peculiar meteorological phenomenon he broke glaring and brilliant on the horizon of the turf world, and then while all were contemplating his splendor faded mysteriously into darkness. Twilight is gone, and there is gloom hanging over the Jockey Club, which is out $600 by the horse's mysterious disappearance, as well as considerably perturbed over the peculiar actions of its owners.

Twilight disappeared from his stable in the rear of St. Louis' Union place about midnight on Thursday night and no tidings of his whereabouts or his owners have since been learned.

"The horse and his owners will be ruled off," said Secretary Bellairs of the Jockey Club. "Not because their horse was a ringer, but because they have broken faith with the Jockey Club by their peculiar actions. The horse was not a ringer, but the Botheration gelding was sold at a considerably greater price under the name of Harry O'Brien, the horse's name. Wednesday morning, and I fulfilled the turf guide's desire to know who had sold him. Polo Jim knew the horse well, and identified him. That, however, was only one step in the investigation. The horse's name had been changed, and I engaged in the business of the club to settle that infraction of the Turf Congress rules, before the purse could be paid out."

PLANNED KILLING.—On Thursday night, continued Mr. Bellairs, "one of the Clark boys came to my office and told me the whole history of their connection with the animal. They said they had seen the horse running at Grand Rapids last fall after the close of the racing season. They bought the horse from the Clark race track. They bought the horse from George Hitchins, who had been running him at Grand Rapids and Grand Rapids, and said that they had sold him to a man named Herring, who had been nursing him along for a killing. He was given the herring-bone firing and put in first-class condition, and was just as good as the intention to make a killing, just as soon as they could get their horses to run against long odds. When their chance came they got them to run at long odds, and the horse for the inspection of the judges and stewards. Instead of keeping the promise the horse was spirited away and Clark left him to the care of the police. On Friday morning about noon I received word from them that they had sold the horse to Canadian parties. That is all I know of the horse or the men who handled him."

"They will be ruled off to a certainty, as their disappearance leaves the association with the horse. The horse was bid up for $400 over his entered price, and $300 of that was the association. The horse will be disqualifed and the purse for the race will be awarded to the Clark boys." The peculiar actions of the Clark boys, however, throw a great deal of suspicion over the fact that the Twilight gelding was recognized by Polo Jim and "Knap" McCarthy, Capt. Bellairs thinks that the horse must have been sold to the Clark boys, the horse was not a member of the association which was due because of the bidding up of their animal. The purse was no offset to the Clark boys, and the horse was disqualified under the rules of the Western Turf Congress for running under a changed name.

AN INFLATED KILLING.—The amount of money taken out of the ring was not quite so large as was reported in the sensational accounts of the camp. When the judges examined the bookmakers' sheets it was found that the exact amount was $600, and most of this had been placed in the hands of E. M. Austin at odds of 20 to 1. Bookmaker Austin says he will swear that the man who placed the Twilight in his hands was a ringer, and John Hambrick spoke in a piping tone, "Austin lost a good bit on the race, and John Hambrick says he was separated from a cool $1,000."

The Gen. Barnard goes south to-day as far as the cities, having to board the members of the Mississippi River Association on their semi-annual tour of inspection.

The new sidewheeler had trouble with her deck crew last night, and went out paying $600 for repairs.

The City of Savannah is paying routers $50 per month for their services.

Capt. W. H. Hambrick resigned as second mate of the sidewheeler, in command of Capt. Dick Morrow, clear for the Tennessee River at 5 p.m. Capt. George Brown, an old-timer, has been appointed to take his place. Hambrick has been at Evansville.

One of the grandest institutions in the United States for sailors is the Marine Hospital Service. Any steamboatman or sailor can go in there free of charge, and receive medical treatment.

The tax of 10 cents per week was deducted from the wages paid to mariners as formerly there would be no expense to the government.

The City of Monroe clears for New Orleans this evening at 5 o'clock, on another of her grand cruises.

Both the sidewheeler and Savannah brought in big lots of coal.

W. H. Morrison, formerly steward of the Savannah, is now on the Boston, in the Cincinnati and Louisville.

The E. M. Norton, which burned Tuesday night, was fitted out for a wrecking boat by the Valley Line.

The sidewheeler skinned from Alton on time well performed.

Capt. Corry of the Valley Line is home from the wreck of the E. M. Norton.

Capt. Headley, engineer of the Oakland, is on the sick list.

Wm. Headley goes out second engineer on the sidewheeler.

Engines W. W. Tucker has gone to Sioux City to accept the position of the E. M. Norton on the occasion of the burning of her.

It was after the crew had all gotten off and turned out to help the drift away from the pier that the barges were bound to go with the boat.

The boat made a jump over the stern of one of the barges.

The crew had a wild ride, expressing their admiration for the skill of the boatmen.

The last we saw of the Norton she was going down the river, as if she was trying to get away from the fire.

THE BOUNDARY WRONG.

Interesting Testimony in Regard to the Indian Territory.

Evidence in an interesting and important case, in which the title to Greer County, Okla., is involved, was taken yesterday before Charles S. Pritchett. The suit is brought by the United States to determine the boundary between the Indian Territory and Texas. The western boundary is fixed at the 100th meridian, and the Red River constitutes the southern boundary. The question at issue is whether the north or south fork of the Red River is to be regarded as the main stream. Texas has always claimed that the north fork was the main stream, and has been contending this claim. Greer County, the district in dispute, has been organized by Texas. Atty.-Gen. C. A. Culverson of Texas came to St. Louis to represent his state.
Prof. H. L. Pritchett of Washington University, who made an examination of the country last summer, Prof. Pritchett gave some evidence that was as important as it was unexpected. He had taken observations at the point where the pillars marking the western boundary are located and determined that they were about a quarter of a mile west of the true meridian. He was cross-examined by District Attorney Garrison, who was sent to represent the case by the Government, but remained firm in his belief that the boundary pillars were on Texas ground. Should this be the case, the Indians would have a strip a quarter of a mile wide, and nearly 20 miles long from the Indian Territory to Texas. The point has never been raised before.

RED LINE PICNICS
AT CREVE COEUR LAKE.

The Third Grand Red Line Picnic will take place at Upper Creve Coeur Lake, Sunday, May 7. Good boating, fishing, music and dancing. One of Thompson's celebrated Gravity Railways on the grounds, the only one in this part of the country. Every one invited. Missouri Pacific trains run direct to the Large Lake, Upper Creve Coeur Lake and Boys. Only 50 cents for the round trip. In addition to the regular service, special train will leave Union Depot at 1:30 p.m.

Charged With Embezzlement.

A warrant was issued to-day against Henry Hetzel, 20 years old, living at Dr. Halb and Louise streets, charging him with embezelling $8 and twenty-three tickets of a riding gallery on Broadway and Lacle street, paid over to W. N. Armstrong, living at 219 Cherokee street. Hetzel was arrested last night by Officer Horndon. He was employed by Armstrong, who, he claims, owes him more than the amount alleged to have been taken.

He Has No License.

A warrant was issued to-day against John Pirro, who is running a saloon at 217 North Compton avenue without a license. A case is pending in the First District Police Court against Pirro, who, with his running a saloon without a city license, and the warrant to-day was for not having a State license. A license, it is stated, was refused Pirro by the Collector.

WELLS HAS GRIT.
Local Pool-Rooms Will Not Get Fair
Ground Results.

THE WESTERN UNION CIRCUIT WILL BE CUT OUT FIRST.

The Fair Association Will Retaliolate at Any Cost on Its Opponents—A Costly Venture—Track and Stable Gossip—
The Base Ball World—General Sporting News.

The St. Louis Jockey Club has declared war on the local pool-rooms. Opening and closing betting, descriptions and results were not published at the East Side track, in Pool Alley or at Cole Ullman's room after the second and race days.

The Gardner-Ditmus pool-room circuit is the only wire sending news from the track, and this was furnishing results only to foreign pool-rooms.

President Wells of the Jockey Club said this morning: "We are determined not to let the local pool-rooms thrive off us. All we have received from that element was a disposition to hurt our meeting in every way possible, and we are retaliating with the only weapon at our disposal. The Jockey Club owns nothing to the pool-rooms and on principle is opposed to fostering them. But we are not going on any high moral plane;
we are simply retaliating. We gave the Gardner-Ditmus people warning not to furnish news from the track to the local pool-rooms and we have warned them that if these places persist in procuring results of their circuit that we will cut them off entirely and no results whatever will be sent out from the track. We may have to come to that anyhow if these concerns persist in stealing returns."

Mr. W. L. Roberts, the official representative of the firm of Gardner & Ditmus at the Fair Grounds, said this morning that he had received orders from the Fair Association to send no messages from the track except over their regular Western Union post-circuit. We sent no messages from the Gardner-Ditmus circuit, and the Gardner-Ditmus people were sent out from the track after the second and race days.

There was a rumor about the track yesterday
